About this pattern:

The 'little berries' pattern is a combination of mosaic stitch and 2-stitch cables: you work one row in the knit-slip stitch combination of the mosaic stitch and cable the stitches in the back row.

Abbreviations:

P1 - purl 1 stitch

Sl1 - slip 1 stitch

C2K- cross 2 knit stitches: skip 1 stitch and knit the second stitch from behind (i.e. in back loop); knit the skipped stitch; slip both stitches on the right needle (see also photo step-by-step instruction of this stitch on the next page)

multi coloured version

Multi coloured pattern:

Cast on an even number of stitches.

Start row: knit across

Row 1: * P1, Sl1 *, repeat across (colour A)

Row 2: * C2K *, repeat across (colour A)

Row 3: * P1, Sl1 *, repeat across (colour B)

photo step-by-step instruction for C2K

You're in an even row and want to C2K.

Knit 2nd stitch on left needle.

Slip both stitches on right needle.

Increases / decreases

Of course you can increase / decrease the pattern.

Because every 'little berry' consists of two stitches, I find it best to increase / decrease by two stitches every second row.

In the photo I

- decreased by two stitches in every odd row by casting off two stitches at the beginning of the row and
- increased by casting-on two stitches at the begin of every even row.

some project ideas

Make a beautiful and warm scarf:

Cast on as much stitches as you need for the width you want your scarf to be (it must be an even number of stitches).

Knit following the pattern until you have reached the desired length.

Make a cute little purse:

Cast on as much stitches as you need for the width you want your purse to be (it must be an even number of stitches).

Knit following the pattern until you have reached twice the desired height of your purse, fold lengthwise and sew the sides together.

Add a braided or knitted strap.

You can also knit following the pattern until you have reached twice and two-thirds of the desired height of your purse, fold lengthwise twice to form the purse and the flap and sew the sides together (see pictures).

Add a braided or knitted strap.

Knit a rectangle,
fold lengthwise,
sew sides together.

Knit a rectangle,
fold twice lengthwise,
sew sides together.

Of course you can use the pattern for other items, too, like sweaters, afghans etc.
